RE: Letter of Approval for as an Approved Continuing Education Provider for Electrician Certification in California

To Whom It May Concern:

This letter is to confirm that 1 Attempt/At Your Pace Online, LLC is an approved continuing education provider for Electrician Certification in California.

This provider is contracted with Cerritos College who will act as their Local Education Agency (LEA) in California as required by California laws and regulations as defined below under CCR Title 8 Regulations §290.1:

Educational Provider is a community college or public school district or public educational institution, or a state-licensed private post-secondary institution under contract with a public educational institution, community college or public school district, or a private postsecondary educational institution approved or registered by the Bureau for Private Postsecondary and Vocational Education.

Under this regulation, this provider has met the requirements under contract with a community college who has reviewed and approved their curriculum in partnership for providing continuing education courses. Approved continuing education providers are listed on our main website at <http://www.dir.ca.gov/dlse/ECU/ElectricalTrade.html>. Under Continuing Education Providers for Certification link.

Should you have any questions, please contact our office at (510) 286-3900.

Sincerely,

Luisa Martinez
Electrician Certification Manager
